2. General

a) These Trading Terms apply to:

- I. The establishment, operation and use of the account of the Customer with the Company;
- II. All transactions effected by the Customer with the Company for the supply of goods or services on its account or on a cash basis unless otherwise expressly agreed in relation to any particular supply of goods; and
- III. The exclusion of all others including any terms and conditions of the Customer.

b) These Trading Terms shall apply as if incorporated into each order placed by the Customer with the Company.

c) These Trading Terms may be varied only with the written agreement of the Company.

d) The Company may at any time and from time to time by written notice to the Customer, alter these Trading Terms.

3. Orders

a) The Customer may place and the Company may accept or reject orders in part or full for the supply of goods upon these Trading Terms by:

- I. A communication in writing (including by e-mail); or
- II. Any other means that the parties agree including by telephone and by internet ordering.

b) The Company reserves the right to specify a minimum order value which it will accept from time to time and to impose a surcharge should the Customer require delivery of goods having a value less than the minimum order value.

c) Orders accepted by the Company cannot be cancelled or altered in whole or in part without the Company's written consent.

d) Shop drawings will only commence after acceptance of a quote.

e) On acceptance of a quotation, the Company has the right in its discretion to request the Customer to pay a deposit of 10% to 30% of the quoted price.

f) Production will only commence:

- I. On payment of the deposit invoice and clear funds have been received into the Company's bank account and
- II. After all drawings have been approved in writing by the Customer.

Note: Customers should allow 12-14 weeks for production time from payment of the deposit.

4. Pricing, Invoicing & Delivery

- a) All prices quoted or agreed are on a tax exclusive basis. The applicable amount of GST or other taxes will be disclosed on invoices.
- b) The price will be as agreed via acceptance of the quotation via a purchase order or by correspondence agreed to by the parties and will not include any additional charges such as shipping charges, air freight, and material price increases or changes to the original orders.
- c) Unless otherwise agreed in advance, the Company reserves the right to:
- I. Charge the Customer for the cost of freight or additional charges incurred for delays relating to the unloading or transporting of containers.
 - II. Charge for re-scheduling and delivery for all variations to the original contract.
 - III. Charge for unexpected costs not previously agreed upon such as for travelling, consulting or additional labour costs incurred for installation of the Goods.
 - IV. Adjust prices if and when necessary prior to acceptance of any offer from the Customer and if any changes or amendments are made to the quote/order after approval (in which case the quoted production time will also increase).
- d) All invoices are issued under the Securities of Payment Act and the provisions of that Act will apply to all arrangements made between the Company and the Customer with respect to the supply of Goods to the Customer.
- e) Whilst the Company shall use all reasonable endeavours to comply with the Customer's particular delivery requirements and order specifications, the Customer will not be entitled to claim compensation by reason of failure to comply with their delivery requirements or minor variations to the Goods.
- f) Where Goods have been sourced from countries other than Australia, the Company reserves the right to request payment from the Customer for increase in costs caused through fluctuations in exchange rates, interest rates, customs duty, shipping costs, clearance and wharf-age charges. Failure by the Customer to accept such charges may result in cancellation of the Goods by the Company on the overseas supplier.
- g) Where Goods have been sourced from countries other than Australia the price of such Goods includes the cost of sea freight. The Goods may be air freighted at an additional cost.
- h) Unless otherwise stated all prices are expressed in Australian dollars.
- i) Delivery shall be deemed to have taken place when the Company or its agent delivers the Goods to or leaves the Goods at the address shown on the Sales Invoice for the delivery of such Goods.

5. Withholding Supply

The Company reserves the right, irrespective of whether or not an order has been accepted and without notice to the Customer, to withhold supply to the Customer and/or to cancel any obligation it may have to the Customer and the Company will not be liable for loss of damage resulting directly or indirectly from such action where:

- I. The Company has insufficient Goods to fulfil the order;
- II. The Goods ordered have been discontinued;
- III. The Customer has failed to observe these Trading Terms or the Company's payment terms or
- IV. The Company has determined, in its absolute discretion that credit should no longer be extended to the Customer.

6. Payment Terms

- a) Unless otherwise agreed, for those Customers that have been authorized to have a 30 day trading account, the Company's terms of payment require payment to be made the last business day of the month following the month in which the goods and services have been supplied by the Company to the Applicant/Customer.
- b) Unless otherwise agreed, for those Customers that have been authorized to have a 7 day trading account, the Company's terms of payment require payment to be made 7 days from the date of invoice, which is the date of the delivery of the Goods to the Customer or to the site nominated by the Customer.
- c) All payments shall be made free of any deductions, withholding or set-off unless authorized by the Company by the 10th day of the following month. A payment certificate must be provided in accordance with the terms set out in the Securities of Payment Act.
- d) If the Customer does not make payment as required by paragraphs 6(a) and 6 (b) , the Company reserves the right to charge the Customer by way of liquidated damages for breach of contract, a default charge in relation to the unpaid amount calculated by applying an interest rate being the cash rate published by the Reserve Bank of Australia from time to time plus 4% on the unpaid amount on a daily basis from the date the unpaid amount became due until the date that it is paid in full.
- e) If the Company is unable to deliver the Goods for any reason whatsoever to the agreed delivery site, the Company may in its discretion charge the Customer a storage fee/charge for storing the Goods until such time as the Goods are delivered to the Customer. It may also charge the Customer any additional handling/loading and delivery costs that it reasonably incurs by reason of the inability to deliver the Goods in the agreed manner.
- f) If the Customer fails to pay for any goods or services supplied by the Company when due, then by notice to the Customer the Company may declare any amounts actually or contingently owing by the Customer to the Company to be immediately due and payable.
- g) Where payment is to be made by cash the amount owing is due and payable immediately.

7. GST

- a) To the extent that a party makes a taxable supply in connection with these Trading Terms, the consideration payable by a party under these Trading Terms represents the value of the taxable supply for which payment is to be made, unless otherwise expressly agreed.
- b) Subject to clause 8(c), if a party makes a taxable supply pursuant to these Trading Terms for a consideration which, under clause 8(a), represents its value, then the party liable to pay for the taxable supply must also pay, at the same time and in the same manner as the value is otherwise payable, the amount of any GST payable in respect of the taxable supply.
- c) A party's obligation to make payment under clause 8(b) is subject to a valid tax invoice being delivered to the party liable to pay for the taxable supply.

8. Default Arrangements & Enforcement Expenses:

If the Customer fails to pay any amounts when due, then in addition to any other amount payable under these Trading Terms, the Company may in its discretion require the Customer to pay to the Company upon demand any costs incurred in connection with enforcement of any of the Company's rights in connection with the supply of goods on these Trading Terms including without limitation:

- a) Any legal costs (on a solicitor and own client basis) incurred by the Company;
- b) Any mercantile agents fees incurred by the Company in recovering or attempting to recover any amount payable by the Customer under these Trading Terms; and
- c) Any dishonour or bank fees incurred by the Company in connection with payments or remittances that are made or which should have been made by the Customer.

9. Exclusions of Warranties and Limitations of Liability:

a) The Company acknowledges that the Australian Consumer Law and similar legislation provides:

- I. Certain rights for Consumers that cannot be excluded; and
- II. In relation to the supply of Goods, that in some circumstances the Customer may be a Consumer.

b) Subject to paragraph (c), the Company excludes any and all conditions, warranties, terms and consumer guarantees implied by statute, general law or custom (including without limitation the Australian Consumer Law) applicable to any supply of Goods.

c) The Consumer Guarantees apply to any supply of Goods where the Customer is a Consumer, and the liability of the Company in connection with the Consumer Guarantees is not limited except as stated in paragraph (d).

d) If the Customer is a Consumer in relation to the supply of Goods, and those goods are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption, then the liability of the Company in connection with the Consumer Guarantees is limited to one of the following (as selected by the Company):

- I. The replacement of the Goods or the supply of equivalent Goods;
- II. The repair of the Goods;
- III. The payment of the cost of replacing the Goods or of acquiring Goods equivalent to the Goods; or
- IV. The payment of the cost of having the Goods repaired, except where it is not fair and Reasonable to limit liability in this way.

e) The Company:

- I. Excludes any liability in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, in connection with any supply of Goods, for any indirect damages or losses, or for any special, punitive or exemplary damages;
- II. Limits its liability in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, in connection with any supply of Goods, to the price payable by the Customer for the Goods; and
- III. Excludes any liability for or in connection a claim that the Goods are not fit for a particular purpose or function, except where the Company has a liability as contemplated by paragraph (a) or (d).

f) In so far as permissible by law and except as provided under this paragraph 10, the Customer will indemnify the Company from or against any physical, direct, indirect and consequential damage, loss or costs (including legal costs on a solicitor- client basis) sustained by the Company or any other person arising from the supply of the Goods or services under these Trading Terms and will indemnify and save harmless the Company from any claim or proceeding against it to the extent caused or contributed to by the Customer in respect to any Goods supplied under these Trading Terms after risk or title has passed to the Customer.

g) The Company will not be liable for any loss or damages claimed by the Customer to have arisen by reason of:

- I. Any alleged missing Goods where the Company is able to provide evidence that the Goods were packed at the port/factory of supply;
- II. Any damaged caused to the Goods while the Customer's staff/sub-contractors are unpacking or installing them and
- III. As a result of any delays or loss incurred as a result of a Force Majeure Event as described in clause 16 hereof;
- IV. If the site nominated by the Customer is for any reason unable to take delivery of the Goods when the Company delivers them to such site and
- V. Any defects in the Goods that arise as a result of the fact that the Goods supplied are untested or require further research and development but nevertheless been requested by the Customer.

h) The Customer agrees to notify the Company in writing of any change in ownership or shareholding of the Customer within seven (7) days from the date such change or immediately if an Insolvency Event as specified in clause 16 hereof occurs and the Customer shall indemnify the Company against any loss or damage incurred by it as a result of its failure to notify the Company of such change or Insolvency Event.

10. Claims, Returns, Cancellations

- a) No return of Goods that are allegedly defective or faulty will be accepted by the Company unless either:
- I. The Customer is a Consumer in relation to those Goods and is entitled to return them because a Consumer Guarantee applies; or
 - II. The Company has given prior written authorisation for the return of the Goods.
- b) If the Company consents under paragraph (a)(ii) for the return of any Goods, the Customer must within 7 days of delivery:
- I. Provide the Company with a written statement setting out the reasons for return of the Goods together with photographic evidence of the allegedly damaged or defective Goods;
 - II. Give the Company details of the original invoice number and the date of delivery of the Goods;
 - III. Provide to the Company a copy of the receipt or delivery docket relating to the Goods;
- c) In the event of the Company agreeing to accept a return of Goods, these shall be returned to the Company at the expense of the Customer, and the Company shall credit the Customer's account with an amount equal to the invoiced sum less any expenses associated to the return of the Goods.
- d) The Customer may not cancel or vary an order unless the Company in its absolute discretion consents in writing to the cancellation or variation.
- e) Any rectification works to the Goods by any contractor (other than the Company) must be approved of by the Company before proceeding with such work.
- f) The Company reserves the right to immediately cancel any contract for the supply of Goods or suspend any such supply without incurring any liability to the Customer in any of the following circumstances:
- I. The Customer is overdue with any payment due under these Trading terms or is otherwise in breach of these Trading Terms; or
 - II. An Insolvency Event has occurred.
- g) Cancellation by the Company under this clause shall be without prejudice to the Company's right to recover payment from the Customer for Goods previously supplied.

11. Modification of labels

The Customer may not, without the Company's written consent, alter, remove, or obliterate any labels that the Company attaches to the Goods.

12. Retention of Title Arrangements

- a) Property in and title to any Goods remains with the Company until the Customer has paid in full (and in cleared funds) all amounts owing by the Customer to the Company in connection with the Goods. Until such time as title to the Goods passes to the Company, the Customer will hold them on trust and as bailee for the Company.
- b) Despite paragraph 13 a), risk in the Goods passes to the Customer upon delivery.
- c) Unless otherwise agreed by the Company, the Customer must identify and store the Goods in a manner that clearly shows that they are the property of the Company.
- d) Notwithstanding any of the matters set forth in this paragraph 13, the Customer may sell the Goods to a third party in the ordinary course of their business. The Company shall be entitled to trace the Proceeds of such sale (or any insurance proceeds if an insurance claim has been made in respect to them), which shall be held by the Customer in a separate bank account on trust for the Company.
- e) The Customer must insure the Goods until sold to a third party.

13. Personal Property Securities Act arrangements

a) Acknowledgement of security agreement and security interest

The Customer acknowledges and agrees that:

- I. The Trading Terms are a security agreement for the purposes of the PPSA;
- II. The Company has a security interest in the Goods and in any present or after acquired property that represents Proceeds of the Goods and/or in which the Goods have been attached or incorporated, including co-mingled goods; and
- III. The security interest secures all amounts owing by the Customer to the Company in connection with the relevant Goods under these Trading Terms.

b) Acknowledgment of arrangements for financing statements

The Customer acknowledges and agrees as follows:

i) Financing statements and financing change statements

The Company may at any time register a financing statement (or, if relevant, a financing change statement) on the Register in relation to its security interest in the Goods that may include terms that:

- I. Describe the Company as the "secured party" and the Customer as the "grantor";
- II. Describe the Goods supplied by the Company to the Customer from time to time pursuant to these Trading Terms as collateral in the class of "other goods" (or in such other class as the Company may reasonably determine is applicable to the Goods);
- III. Specifies that the security interest that the Company holds in the collateral is a PMSI in accordance with item 7 of the table in section 153(1) of the PPSA to the extent that it secures payment of the amounts owing in connection with that collateral; and
- IV. Specifies that the security interest affects Proceeds and, in particular, all present and after acquired property that represents Proceeds of the Goods.

ii) Period of registration

The Company may register a financing statement or financing change statement on the PPSA Register for any period that the Company determines (in its discretion).

iii) Payment of fees and costs

Upon request made by the Company, the Customer must pay to the Company all fees, charges and expenses that the Company may reasonably incur in:

- I. Preparing, lodging or registering any financing statement or financing change statement in relation to any security interest that is granted to the Company under the Trading Terms;
- II. Maintaining any such registration; or
- III. Enforcing any security interest granted to the Company under the Trading Terms.

These fees, charges and expenses may be incurred by or with an agent that acts on behalf of the Company.

iv) When registration to be effected

The Company may register its security interest on the Register at any time so long as the Company believes on reasonable grounds that it will become a secured party in relation to the Goods including without limitation when the Customer signs or otherwise adopts or accepts the Contract Terms in a manner proposed by the Company.

v) Attachment

A security interest in Goods created according to the Trading Terms will attach to the Goods at the time that the Customer obtains possession of them and not at any later time.

vi) Do all things necessary

The Customer must do anything reasonably required by the Company to enable the Company to register the security interest as a PMSI and to maintain that registration.

vii) Separate financing statement may be registered if required.

If the Company considers that it has or may have a security interest that is not a PMSI in relation to any Goods, it may register a financing statement in respect of that security interest (and that financing statement may be in addition to a financing statement registered by the Company in relation to a PMSI in the same Goods).

c) Confidential Information

- I. The Company and the Customer agree that neither party will disclose to an interested person or to any other person, any information of the kind described in section 275 (1) of the PPSA except that the Company may disclose that information to an interested person where section 275(7) of the PPSA applies.
- II. The Customer agrees that it will not authorize the disclosure of any information of the kind described in section 275 (1) of the PPSA.

d) Enforcement

If the Customer fails to pay an amount owing when due or if it fails to perform any of its obligations in connection with the supply of Goods, the Customer agrees that the Company shall be entitled to exercise its enforcement rights and remedies as a secured party in accordance with the provisions of the PPSA including (without limitation) the rights contained in section 123 of the PPSA to seize the Goods by any method permitted by law. For these purposes, and without limiting any other rights of the Company under the PPSA as a secured party, the Customer further agrees:

- I. Upon demand made by the Company, to immediately deliver up the Goods to the Company;
- II. To irrevocably authorise the Company to enter any premises occupied by the Customer in order to search for, retrieve and remove those Goods to which the Company has title and which are the subject of a security interest as provided for by these Trading Terms;
- III. To do all things necessary to immediately facilitate the Company's access to the Customer's premises and to assist the Company to locate and identify the Goods;
- IV. To authorize the Company to resell the Goods seized and apply the proceeds of sale in payment of any monies that the Customer owes it;
- V. That in the event of any inconsistency with the provisions contained in section 123 of the PPSA and the provisions contained in this paragraph (d), the provisions of this paragraph (d) shall prevail.

e) Application of certain PPSA provisions

To the extent they apply, the following provisions of the PPSA confer rights on the Company: section 123 (seizing collateral); section 126 (apparent possession); section 128 (secured party may dispose of collateral); section 129 (disposal by purchase); and section 134 (1) (retention of collateral). The Customer agrees that in addition to those rights, the Company shall, if there is default by the Customer, have the right to seize, purchase, take possession or apparent possession, retain, deal with or dispose of any Goods, not only under those sections but also, as additional and independent rights, under this document and the Customer agrees that the Company may do so in any manner it sees fit including (in respect of dealing or disposing) by private or public sale, lease or licence.

f) Contracting out provisions

To the extent that Chapter 4 of the PPSA would otherwise apply to the enforcement of a security interest under or in connection with these Trading Terms, the following provisions of the PPSA do not apply and for the purposes of section 115 of the PPSA and are "contracted out" of these Trading Terms in respect of all Goods to which that section can be applied: section 95 (notice of removal of accession to the extent it requires the Company to give a notice to the grantor); section 96 (retention of accession); section 125 (obligation to dispose of or retain collateral); section 121(4) (enforcement of liquid assets- notice of grantor); section 130 (notice of disposal to the extent it requires the Company to give notice to the Customer); section 129 (2) & (3) (d) (contents of statement of account after disposal); section 132 (4) (statement of account if no disposal); section 135 (notice of retention); section 142 (redemption of collateral); and section 143 (re-instatement of security agreement).

g) Notices

i) PPSA Notices

The Customer agrees that the Company does not need to give the Customer any notice under the PPSA (including without limitation a notice of a verification statement received from the Registrar) unless the notice is required by the PPSA and that requirement cannot be excluded.

ii) Where default

In the event of a default by the Customer in performing of any of its obligations in connection with a supply of Goods under the Trading Terms, the Customer agrees that (as between the parties to the Contract Terms) the Company is not obliged to give notice to any other secured party with interests in the same collateral or to any other third party of any enforcement or recovery action that it takes or which it may take with respect to its security interest in any of the Goods

14 Certain Goods are not to become fixtures

a) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is the intention of the parties that:

- I. Where the Goods are or might be characterized as fixtures to land, and/or where they are building supplies or products (including without limitation) kitchens, wardrobes, balustrades, louvres, stone, lighting, grates, awnings, vanities bathroom fittings, timber floorings, pre fabricated bathrooms or any other similar products or goods or;
- II. The Goods rest by their own weight on the land then the following provisions are to apply.

b) That until the Customer has paid for any of the Goods in full, the Goods are taken to be personal property of the Company and not fixtures despite having been connected to another item, appliance, property or otherwise affixed to land.

c) In the event of a default by the Customer under these Trading Terms, that in addition to the enforcement provisions set out in paragraph 14 d), if the Goods can be removed without causing significant damage to the premises, the Customer consents to the Company and any authorized contractor acting on behalf of the Company entering upon the premises of the Customer or any premises where the Goods are located or have been installed for the purposes of disconnecting them from the other item, appliance, or property (as the case may be) and removing and retrieving the Goods.

d) In the event of the Company exercising its rights under sub paragraph 15 c), the Customer:

- I. Must not make any claim against the Company; and
- II. Must indemnify the Company against any claim by any third party (including without limitation the owner of the relevant property), in contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise arising from or in connection with the exercise of those rights including without limitation for the cost of making good the premises arising from or connected with the removal of the Goods or for any loss or damage (whether direct or indirect) suffered by the Customer or any third party.

15. Insolvency Events

If the Customer:

- I. Becomes insolvent or bankrupt;
- II. Is the subject of an application to wind up, or if a Liquidator, Provisional Liquidator, Receiver, a Receiver and Manager, or an Administrator is appointed with respect to the Customer or any of the Customer's assets;
- III. Makes an arrangement or composition with the creditors of the Customer or attempts to make such an arrangement or composition;
- IV. Is unable to pay their debts as they fall due;
- V. Fails to comply with a statutory demand made under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) for payment of a debt;
- VI. Ceases business;
- VII. Has execution levied against any of their assets; or
- VIII. Has a mortgagee Liquidator, Provisional Liquidator, Receiver, Receiver and manager or Administrator enter or seek to enter into possession of any of its assets, then any monies actually or contingently owing to the Company at that time under any contract formed on these Trading Terms (including any amounts which would not otherwise be payable until a later date or dates) are immediately due and payable (without the need for any demand by the Company).

16. Force Majeure

- I. The Company may suspend any or all of its obligations to the Customer that are affected by any act of God, fire, flood, storm, earthquake, strike, lockout, trade dispute, breakdown, theft, crime, delays due to bad weather at sea or in shipping, port dispute or Australian Government Quarantine inspections or the inability of the Company to procure necessary materials or articles preventing or retarding performance of the contract or any other cause not reasonably within the control of the Company (each a Force Majeure Event) and the Company is not responsible for any delay, default, loss or damage due to any Force Majeure Event.
- II. When a Force Majeure Event ceases to affect the performance of any of the Company's obligations, the Company must lift any suspension of those obligations that it makes under paragraph a).

17. Insurance and Intellectual Property

- I. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, the Company accepts no responsibility for the insurance of the Goods or any of the Customer's property or materials.
- II. Any Intellectual Property that is presently existing or which is developed in the future by or for the Company in connection with the supply of its goods (including the Goods) vests in and is owned by the Company, and the Customer must do all things and sign all documents reasonably required by the Company to give effect to this clause.

18. Certificate

A certificate of the Customer's liability under any contract or contracts formed on these Trading Terms, signed by an officer of the Company, is prima facie evidence of the Customer's liability to the Company under these Trading Terms as at the date of the certificate.

19. Termination

- I. Either party may terminate the arrangements under these Trading Terms by not less than 30 days notice to the other or immediately by notice to the other party if the other party is subject to an Insolvency Event.
- II. Upon termination all amounts actually or contingently owing by the Customer to the Company are immediately due and payable and the Customer shall immediately on demand deliver up to the Company all Goods purchased from the Company for which it has not paid.

20. Time

Time is of the essence for payment of any monies owed by the Customer to the Company pursuant to the provisions specified in these Trading Terms.

21. Jurisdiction

- I. These Trading Terms are governed by the laws of the State of New South Wales.
- II. The parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of New South Wales in relation to any dispute or claim arising under or in connection with the supply of Goods or otherwise concerning these Trading Terms.

22. Notices

- a) Any notice required by or contemplated by these Trading Terms must be in writing in the English language.
- b) Any notice by one party to the other shall be sufficiently served if served:
 - I. Personally;
 - II. By facsimile transmission to the number specified in the application made to the Company by the Customer to establish the arrangements under these Trading Terms or as otherwise notified to the other party, with a transmission confirmation receipt marked "OK";
 - III. By e-mail to the address previously notified to the other party, if the e-mail is acknowledged by the recipient; or
 - IV. By pre-paid post to the party to be served at the registered office of the party or to the address previously notified to the other party, (in which case it is taken to be received 3 days after the date of posting).

23. Miscellaneous

- I. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provisions of these Trading Terms shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions.
- II. No delay or failure to act is a waiver of any of the provisions herein contained. No waiver is effective unless in writing. A waiver of a breach is not a waiver of any other breach. No waiver by the Company of any one or more of the defaults of the Customer of any provision of these terms and conditions shall operate or be construed as a waiver of any future default whether of a like or a different kind.
- III. These Trading Terms shall bind the Company and the Customer and their respective successors and permitted assigns.
- IV. The Customer may not assign any of its rights or obligations under these Trading Terms without the prior written consent of the Company, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- V. The Company may sub- contract the supply or delivery of Goods.
